

THE GOPREP SOLUTION

The biggest issue meal prep companies face is the lack of an online ordering & reporting system built for the weekly prep & delivery model.

Most companies are taking verbal or written orders from their customers leading to massive time consumption, human error, and a reduction of sales.

GoPrep solves this problem by providing a super convenient & easy to use menu platform. GoPrep also provides a dashboard which allows you to view & print compacted reports based on the orders you collect in order to simplify & expedite your kitchen & delivery operations.

Overall, using GoPrep increases orders & sales, saves a massive amount of time, decreases waste, and prevents inevitable human error, giving you the time & additional money to grow your business.
